

Working Out Loud

DIY career skills for the 21st century

ML Huppertz and Margaret L Ruwoldt

September 2016

How can I be more effective in my role?

Where do I learn about my professional field?
(Or about something new?)

What can I contribute to my university,
to my peers, to society?

Who can help me achieve my goals?

12 weeks until the end of 2016:
what will you do with them?

Activity

To achieve your goal:
what do you need to learn?
who can help you?

Activity

I don't have time.

I don't know how to start.

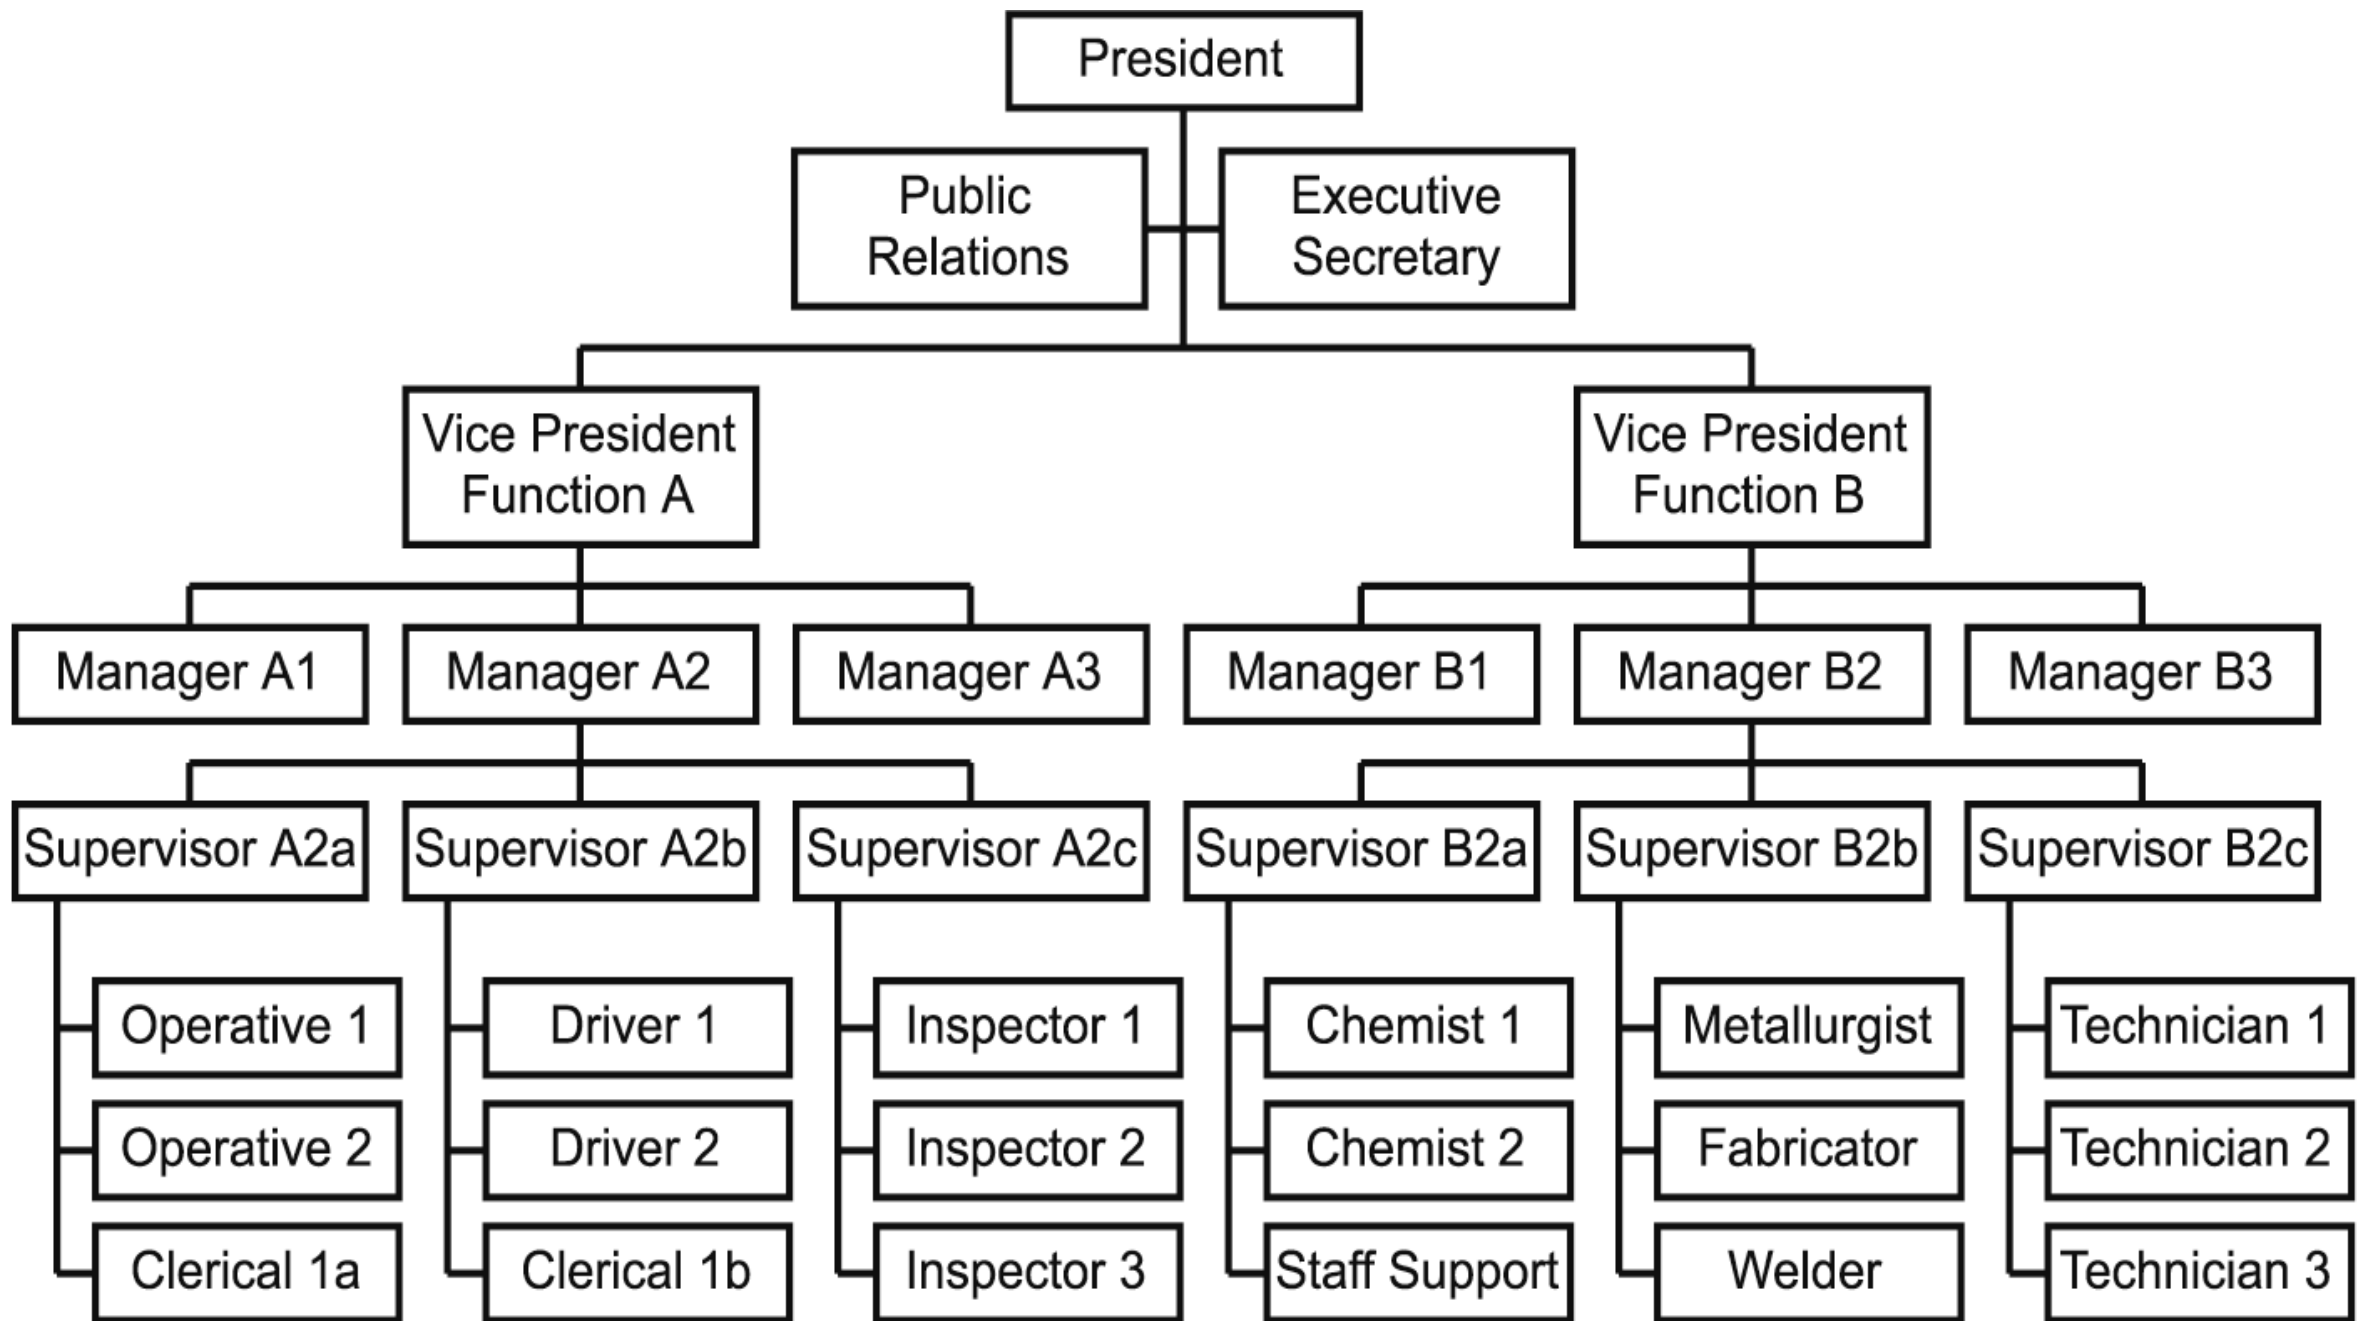

I don't know who to connect with.

I'm not a self-promoter.

We're not bad at it.

We're just not good at it yet.

Better for you.

Better for your organisation.

How WOL works

Meetings: 1 hour per week for 12 weeks

Form new relationships based on generosity

Show your work/ideas to others

Practise your leadership skills (facilitator)

Develop new habits (guided mastery)

Become a confident user of social media
in a professional context

Find and meet people who share your interests

Learn about a particular topic

Get better at what you do
(and be recognised for it)

Explore possibilities in a new field

A black and white graphic illustration. At the top, a large hand reaches down from the right side, grasping the top of a stick figure. The stick figure is positioned in the center of a horizontal line of seven other stick figures. The background is white, with orange vertical bars on the left and right sides. A black horizontal bar with white and green text is overlaid across the middle of the image.

Not just for the lucky ones

It's for everyone.

What will you do in the next 12 weeks?
